

CATCH THE READING BUG!

Summer Reading Club Logsheet 2008

- Anyone ages 2-11 (or entering 5th grade next school year) can join. This summer, you'll be keeping track of the amount of time you spend reading. If you like, you can keep track of all your reading online this summer — just go to <http://www.nhclibrary.org> and choose the Summer Reading Clubs link on the lefthand sidebar.

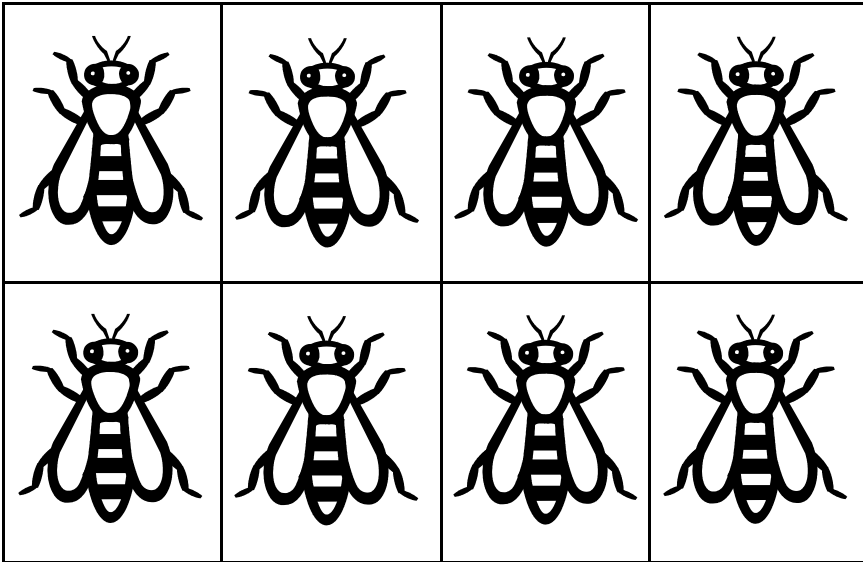

- You can earn three prizes while you're reading this summer. For each prize, you need to read, or listen to someone reading to you, for four hours.

Here's how to claim your prizes if you're using this paper logsheet:

- Beginning Friday, June 6th : Sign up at any Library location.
- Beginning Friday, June 29th : If you have already signed up, bring your reading record back to the Library, show us that you've read at least four hours, and get your "Catch the Reading Bug" bookmark.
- On your next visit to the Library, bring your reading record back to the Library again, show us that you've read at least four more hours toward your goal, and get your "Catch the Reading Bug" stickers.
- Any time you have spent at least four more hours reading, you can bring your logbook to the Library and get your Summer Reading Certificate and grab-bag prize.
- The last day to join Summer Reading Club is Saturday, August 2nd . The last day to bring your reading record back for prizes or certificates is Friday, August 22nd .

Each bee = 30 minutes reading time. When you've colored all the bees, bring your log sheet to the Library to get your "Catch the Reading Bug" bookmark!

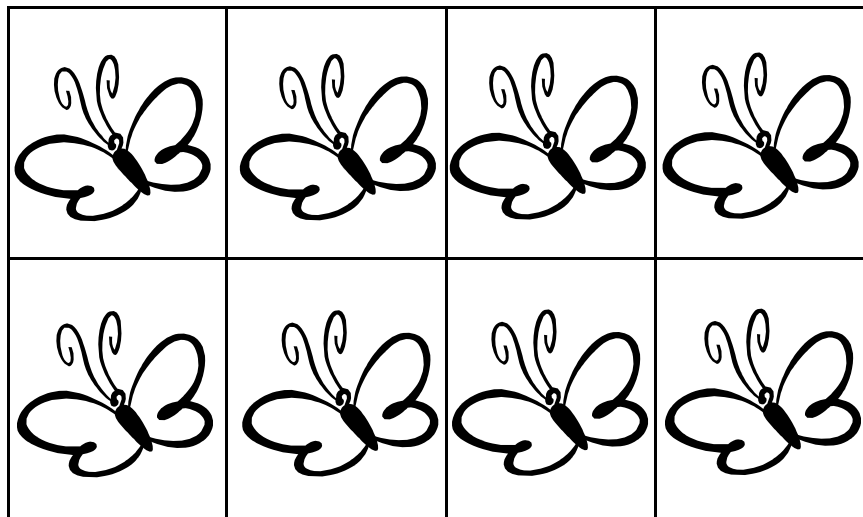

Each dragonfly = 30 minutes reading time. When you've colored all the dragonflies, bring your log sheet to the Library to get your "Catch the Reading Bug" stickers!
