

Seventy-seven wish lists were returned to planning staff at the Middle Sound Community meeting on May 12th, with a total of 245 written comments in the following category areas:

Within each category, the following graph shows percent of total response rate for the most frequently requested items:

The following graph shows the most requested responses as a percent of all wishes submitted:

