

Hugh MacRae Nature Trail

The Hugh MacRae Nature Trail is located on South College Road, adjacent to the New Hanover County Department of Aging.

The trail is currently under construction. When completed, the trail will provide walkers with a choice of several trails, of various lengths, which will wind through pine forest, fern thickets and across a cypress-lined pond. There will also be a gazebo overlooking the pond, and benches along the trail.